To Whom It May Concern:

I have put together four groups of friends to visit China since 1999, most recently in May, 2012. I have worked with Chris Lee and ChinaPlus each time. I have never been disappointed. His choice of hotels is fantastic--almost all have been rated 5-stars by the Chinese government on the 5-star scale. He has always arranged for superior city guides--all with great experience and very good English language skills. ChinaPlus itineraries are comprehensive though often somewhat arduous, though that is what most I have traveled with preferred. For many this adventure was their only visit to China and they wanted to make the most of it. My groups have never had a serious problem with hotels, flights or Yangtze River cruise arrangements. Chris Lee has consistently provided more than promised, not less.

I am a retired university professor and vice president and have taught, consulted, and studied China for a long time. I have visited this ever-changing and fascinating country over 25 times and can be very critical of the quality of content or travel arrangements. Clients can depend on ChinaPlus, their guides and arrangements for integrity, honesty and quality.

I am consistently impressed with the value given by ChinaPlus. They provide a first class, top quality tour experience for a modest cost.

Wonderful itineraries, superb accommodations, great guides and good value--if China is on your touring radar, give ChinaPlus a good look.

I am happy to give a personal assessment to anyone interested.
